

LinkedIn Conversation Between Ranger Kidwell-Ross and Antonio Portunato, Started March 1, 2022

- Hi, Antonio, I'm writing as Director of the World Sweeping Association. I hear you picked up Home Depot and BJ's and wonder if you'd care to provide any further info on your plans, etc. Cheers, Ranger

Here's our info link: www.worldsweepingpros.org/whyjoin/ FYI, though, we're for independent contractors. I understand you plan to self-perform, though my info may not be correct, of course. I also own the largest information website for sweeping on the internet, WorldSweeper.com.

As a journalist, my sources are not available. However, it sounds as though the information is accurate. If you would like to speak together I would welcome that. Just let me know; I'm on the west coast north of Seattle.
